

Sharing our Catholic Story

Event Overview:

This professional learning experience will provide an opportunity for participants to explore a Catholic understanding of the Judeo-Christian story. It will engage with both the Old and New Testaments, as well as an introduction to Catholic theology and its implications for prayer and liturgy.

Who can participate?

All staff, but especially those new to Catholic Christianity.

How will the program be structured?

In negotiation with organisers according to the needs of the school.

The program has been designed to:

Develop knowledge and skills around an understanding of the Judeo-Christian sacred story and its implications for the Catholic school.

What is expected of Participants?

To attend all stages of the professional learning planned and negotiated and to transfer and embed the new learning into practice.

What is required of the Principal?

To attend and participate with staff.

To ensure that participants have the time available to attend the professional learning session(s) and apply learnings in the school setting.

What you can expect from the CEOB:

The CEOB will work collaboratively to develop and facilitate the program.

Registration:

Registration will be available online early in the 2017 school year.
