

Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) - 2017

Event Overview

An introduction to Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL).

Who can participate?

This professional learning has been designed to support classroom teachers - Foundation – Year 10.

How the program will be structured?

A full-day introduction to the learning theory behind CLIL followed by the establishment of a CLIL Special Interest Group to support teachers interested in trialling CLIL methodology in their schools and becoming pilot CLIL schools for the Diocese.

The program has been designed to:

Provide an introduction to the learning theory and practice behind CLIL.

What is expected of participants?

Participants are expected to share responsibility for continual learning and to engage in reflective practice.

What is required of the principal?

The Principal is required to support participants through scheduling time to allow their attendance and to be open to supporting the trialling of CLIL methodology in their school.

What you can expect from the CEOB

The CEOB will:

- ensure that all professional learning is within the context of the CECV Languages – Speak Up! 2017-2019 Strategy Plan;
- provide ongoing support from staff, as required;
- ensure that all participants receive the necessary documentation for this program to be recognized as professional learning through the Victorian Institute of Teaching;
- cover program, venue, catering and materials costs for teachers in CEOB schools; and
- provide start-up grants to CLIL trial schools.

Registration

Registration will be online via the CEOB PD and Events link. Closing dates will be one week prior to each workshop.

Registration implies that participants have the full support, as outlined, of their school principal.

Endorsement

Leigh Mitchell